

I have been listening to KLOVE on 89.5 FM here in El Paso Texas. This station supports wholesome values and has a positive and encouraging impact on our community. I am sending these comments today to ask the FCC to preserve this service because of its impact on my family and community. Thank you.